The Hire-Purchase Act, 1972(26 of 1972)

042.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.-A hire-purchase agreement is a hybrid transaction which starting as a contract of hire may culminate in an out and out sale. It is an agreement for hire with an option to the hirer to purchase the goods. Its socio-economic importance can hardly be over-estimated as it is a convenient and a useful legal device for acquiring goods on long terms. There is at present no separate and specific law with respect to hire-purchase in India. Subject to the general provisions of the general law as to contract and sale of goods contained in the Indian Contract Act, 1872 and Sale of Goods Act, 1930, hire-purchase transactions are governed entirely by the terms and conditions of the agreement between the owners of goods and hirers. This sometimes leads to abuses and evils specially in relation to the hirer who is generally the weaker party to the transaction. With a view to avoiding such abuses and evils, the Law Commission has in its Twentieth Report on the Law of Hire-Purchase made detailed recommendations for the enactment of a law with respect to hire-purchase. The Bill seeks to implement the recommendations made by the Law Commission subject to a few modifications.² Apart from defining in precise terms the rights and obligations of the parties to a hire-purchase agreement, the provisions of the Bill seek to give special protection to a hirer wherever such protection is legitimately needed. For this purpose suitable provisions are included in the Bill for-(a) ensuring that the hirer understands the true nature and implications of the agreement and is able to obtain from time to time the current state of accounts in relation to the agreements (vide clauses 34 and 22);(b) implying into every hire-purchase agreement certain conditions and warranties (vide clause 6) in favour of the hirer;(c) giving indefeasible rights to the hirer for purchasing the goods, terminating the agreement and for assigning his interest in the agreement (vide clauses 8, 9 and 10);(d) ensuring that the owner makes good to the hirer any unconscionable gain which he may have derived as a result of exercising his right of seizure of goods (vide clause 16);(e) restricting the right of the owner to recover possession of the goods otherwise than by proceedings in a Court of law after a specified proportion of hire-purchase price has been paid or tendered (vide clause 19).[8th June, 1972]An Act to define and regulate the rights and duties of parties to hire-purchase agreements and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:-

Originally Notification No. G.S.R. 222(E), dated 30.4.1973 notified 1.6.1973, as date of enforcement but G.S.R. 288(E), dated 31.5.1973, rescinded the above notification, i.e, G.S.R. 222(E) and notified 1.9.1973, as the date of enforcement. However, G.S.R. 402(E), dated 30.8.1973, published in the Gazette of India, Ext., Pt.II, Section 3(i), p.1225, dated 30.8.1973, rescinded G.S.R. 288(E). The Act still remains unenforced. Now see the Motor Vehicle Act, 1988 (59 of 1988) and Hire Purchase (Repeal) Act 2005.

7. Limitation on hire-purchase charges .(1) In this section,

(3) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, and after consultation with the Reserve Bank of India, specify the rate per centum per annum, being a rate which shall not be less than ten per centum per annum, at which statutory charges may be calculated under sub-section (2) and different rates may be so specified in respect of hire-purchase agreements relating to different classes or sub-classes of goods. (4) Where the net hire-purchase charges in relation to a hire-purchase agreement exceed the statutory charges in relation to such agreement calculated in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2), the hirer may, by notice in writing to the owner, either elect to treat the agreement as void or to have his liability reduced by the amount by which the net hire-purchase charges exceed the statutory charges aforesaid. (6) Where the hirer elects to have his liability reduced by the amount referred to in sub-section (4), his liability shall be reduced by that amount and that amount may be set off by the hirer against the amount that would otherwise be due under the agreement and, to the extent to which it is not so set off, may be recovered by the hirer as a debt due to him by the owner.

8. Passing of property .Subject to the provisions of this Act, the property in the goods to which a hire-purchase agreement relates shall pass to the hirer only on the completion of the purchase in the manner provided in the agreement.

(2)The rebate for the purposes of sub-section (1) shall be equal to two-thirds of an amount which bears to the hire-purchase charges the same proportion as the balance of the hire-purchase price not yet due bears to the hire-purchase price.Explanation .In this sub-section, hire-purchase charges means the difference between the hire-purchase price and the cash price as stated in the hire-purchase agreement.(3)The provisions of this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the hire-purchase agreement, but where the terms of the agreement entitle the hirer to a rebate higher than that allowed by this section, the hirer shall be entitled to the rebate provided by the agreement.

10. Right of hirer to terminate agreement at any time .(1) The hirer may, at any time before the final payment under the hire-purchase agreement falls due, and after giving the owner not less than fourteen days notice in writing of his intention so to do and re-delivering or tendering the goods to the owner, terminate the hire-purchase agreement by payment or tender to the owner of the amounts which have accrued due towards the hire-purchase price and have not been paid by him, including the sum, if any, which he is liable to pay under sub-section (2).

(2)Where the hirer terminates the agreement under sub-section (1), and the agreement provides for the payment of a sum named on account of such termination, the liability of the hirer to pay that sum shall be subject to the following conditions, namely:(a)where the sum total of the amounts paid and the amounts due in respect of the hire-purchase price immediately before the termination exceeds one-half of the hire-purchase price, the hirer shall not be liable to pay the sum so named;(b)where the sum total of the amounts paid and the amounts due in respect of the hire-purchase price immediately before the termination does not exceed one-half of the hire-purchase price, the hirer shall be liable to pay the difference between the said sum total and the said one-half, or the sum named in the agreement, whichever is less.(3)Nothing in sub-section (2) shall relieve the hirer from any liability for any hire which might have accrued due before the termination.(4)Any provision in any agreement, whereby the right conferred on a hirer by this section to terminate the hire-purchase agreement is excluded or restricted, or whereby any liability in addition to the liability imposed by this Act is imposed on a hirer by reason of the termination of the hire-purchase agreement by him under this section, shall be void.(5)Nothing in this section shall prejudice any right of a hirer to terminate a hire-purchase agreement otherwise than by virtue of this section.

11. Right of hirer to appropriate payments in respect of two or more agreements .A hirer who is liable to make payments in respect of two or more hire-purchase agreements to the same owner shall, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, be entitled, on making any payment in respect of the agreement which is not sufficient to discharge the total amount then due under all the agreements to appropriate the sum so paid by him in or towards the satisfaction of the sum due under any one of the agreements, or in or towards the satisfaction of the sums due under any two or more of the agreements in such proportions as he thinks fit, and, if he fails to make any such appropriation as aforesaid, the sum so paid shall, by virtue of this section, stand appropriated towards the satisfaction of the sums due under the respective hire-purchase agreements in the order in which the agreements were entered into.

12. Assignment and transmission of hirers right or interest under hire-purchase agreement .(1) The hirer may assign his right, title and interest under the hire-purchase agreement with the consent of the owner, or, if his consent is unreasonably withheld, without his consent.

(2)Except as otherwise provided in this section, no payment or other consideration shall be required by an owner for his consent to an assignment under sub-section (1), and where an owner requires any such payment or other consideration for his consent, that consent shall be deemed to be unreasonably withheld.(3)Where on a request being made by a hirer in this behalf the owner fails or refuses to give his consent to an assignment under sub-section (1), the hirer may apply to the Court for an order declaring that the consent of the owner to the assignment has been unreasonably withheld, and where such an order is made the consent shall be deemed to be unreasonably withheld. Explanation .In this sub-section, Court means a Court which would have jurisdiction to entertain a suit for the relief claimed in the application.(4)As a condition of granting such consent, the owner may stipulate that all defaults under the hire-purchase agreement shall be made good and may require the hirer and the assignee to execute and deliver to the owner an assignment agreement, in a form approved by the owner, whereby, without affecting the continuing personal liability of the hirer in such respects, the assignee agrees with the owner to be personally liable to pay the instalments of hire remaining unpaid and to perform and observe all other stipulations and conditions of the hire-purchase agreement during the residue of the term thereof and whereby the assignee indemnifies the hirer in respect of such liabilities.(5)The right, title and interest of a hirer under a hire-purchase agreement shall be capable of passing by operation of law to the legal representative of the hirer but nothing in this sub-section shall relieve the legal representative from compliance with the provisions of the hire-purchase agreement. Explanation .In this sub-section, the expression legal representative has the same meaning as in clause (11) of section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908).(6)The provisions of this section shall apply notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the hire-purchase agreement.

13. Obligations of hirer to comply with agreement .Subject to the provisions of this Act, a hirer shall be bound

14. Obligation of hirer in respect of care to be taken of goods .(1) A hirer in the absence of a contract to the contrary,

(a)shall be bound to take as much care of the goods to which the hire-purchase agreement relates as a man of ordinary prudence would, under similar circumstances, take of his own goods of the same bulk, quality and value;(b)shall not be responsible for the loss, destruction or deterioration of the goods, if he has taken the amount of care thereof described in clause (a).(2)The hirer shall be liable to make compensation to the owner for any damage caused by failure to take care of the goods in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1).

15. Obligation of hirer in respect of use of goods .If the hirer makes any use of the goods to which the hire-purchase agreement relates which is not according to the conditions of the agreement, the hirer shall be liable to make compensation to the owner for any damage arising to the goods from or during such use.

16. Obligation of hirer to give information as to whereabouts of goods .(1) Where by virtue of a hire-purchase agreement a hirer is under a duty to keep in his possession or control the goods to which the agreement relates, the hirer shall, on receipt of a request in writing from the owner, inform the owner where the goods are at the time when the information is given or, if it is sent by post, at the time of posting.

(2) If the hirer fails without reasonable cause to give the said information within fourteen days of the receipt of the notice, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

17. Rights of hirer in case of seizure of goods by owner .(1) Where the owner seizes under clause (c) of section 19 the goods let under a hire-purchase agreement, the hirer may recover from the owner the amount, if any, by which the hire-purchase price falls short of the aggregate of the following amounts, namely:

(i) the amounts paid in respect of the hire-purchase price up to the date of seizure; (ii) the value of the goods on the date of seizure. (2) For the purposes of this section, the value of any goods on the date of seizure is the best price that can be reasonably obtained for the goods by the owner on that date less the aggregate of the following amounts, namely: (i) the reasonable expenses incurred by the owner for seizing the goods; (ii) any amount reasonably expended by the owner on the storage, repairs or maintenance of the goods; (iii) (whether or not the goods have subsequently been sold or otherwise disposed of by the owner) the reasonable expenses of selling or otherwise disposing of the goods; and (iv) the amount spent by the owner for payment of arrears of taxes and other dues which are payable in relation to the goods under any law for the time being in force and which the hirer was liable to pay. (3) If the owner fails to pay the amount due from him under the provisions of this section or any portion of such amount, to the hirer within a period of thirty days from the date notice for the payment of the said amount is served on him by the hirer the owner shall be liable to pay interest on such amount at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum from the date of expiry of the said period of thirty days. (4) Where the owner has sold the goods seized by him the onus of proving that the price obtained by him for the goods was the best price that could be reasonably obtained by him on the date of seizure shall lie upon him.

(3) Where there is a failure without reasonable cause to carry out the duties imposed by sub-section (1), or sub-section (2), then, while the default continues, (a) the owner shall not be entitled to enforce the agreement against the hirer or to enforce any contract of guarantee relating to the agreement, or to enforce any right to recover the goods from the hirer; and (b) no security given by the hirer in respect of money payable under the agreement or given by a surety in respect of money payable under such a contract of guarantee as aforesaid shall be enforceable against the hirer or the surety by any holder thereof, and, if the default continues for a period of two months, the owner shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees. (4) Nothing in sub-section (3) shall be construed as affecting the right of a third party to enforce against the owner or hirer or against both the owner and the hirer any charge or encumbrance to which the goods covered by the hire-purchase agreement are subject.
